

4th Grade English Media Class
The Deep
Study Guide

Test Date: Thursday, June 22nd, 2023

What to study:

★ Vocabulary & Expressions: Study the meaning and spelling of each vocabulary word and

Episode 18

tropical                      devastated                      infuriating                      omnivorous

Episode 19

phony                      clumsy                      antagonist                      modest                      apprehend bargain                      ruthless                      oblivious                      cliffhanger                      artifact

heads up

Episode 20

siren                      myth                      distant                      captive                      attitude

give smn credit for sth                      catch up

Episode 21

gloat                      paralyzed                      collide                      debris

Episode 22

migration                      biologist                      intrigued                      species                      secluded

Episode 23

evidence                      aware                      organism                      override                      sentient

★ Characters and Vehicles: Make sure to know the names of each character and vehicle.

★ Worksheets: Have a look through all the questions in the worksheets and make sure to know the main events of each episode.