

Name: _____

Grade 1 English Class Homework Unit 2 Chapter 1

adapt	Changing your behavior so you can live or survive in a place
climate	The normal weather in a place over a long time
eager	Being really excited to do something freedom	When you can go where you want, not stuck or trapped
fresh	Something that was newly made, not old or rotten sense	A feeling about something, just knowing shadows	Dark shapes made when something blocks a light
silence	Quiet, no sound or noise

Use a vocabulary word to finish each sentence:

1. The _____ boy is so excited for his birthday party.
2. I like waking up early and buying _____ bread at the bakery!
3. Animals must _____ to survive in the desert.
4. The buildings make long, black _____ on a sunny day.
5. The _____ in Antarctica is super cold all year.
6. When people go to jail, they don't have _____ anymore.
7. The wind is blowing hard. I _____ a storm is coming.
8. I like to read my book in _____ in the library. It's so quiet.

Use the vocabulary words to complete the paragraph:

Some animals live in crazy places. For example, in the desert the _____ is hot and dry, but camels _____ by keeping water in their bodies as fat! There is not a lot of _____, new water, so they have to be careful. Other animals stay in the cool _____ of big rocks or hills to avoid the Sun's light.

In forests, animals like bears sleep all winter long. Bears can _____ when it is time to wake up and winter is over. They just know! Then they become _____ and excited to leave the peace and _____ of their den. The weather gets warmer and they have the _____ to go anywhere in the forest again.